- i. TFBC will make available to the subscriber such information as the subscriber reasonably requests and, permit and contribute to such audits, including inspections, conducted by the subscriber (or the subscribers appointed auditors), as is necessary to demonstrate TFBC compliance with the Data Protection Legislation.
 - j. save as may be required by law, at the subscriber's option either delete or return the subscriber Data to the subscriber on expiry or termination of this Agreement.
5. TFBC shall inform the subscriber in writing if, in TFBC opinion, an instruction from the subscriber infringes the Data Protection Legislation but only in relation to a breach of General Data Protection Regulation ((EU 2016/679)) and/or other Union or Member State data protection provisions and not jurisdictions outside of these areas.
6. TFBC shall indemnify and keep indemnified subscriber against any liability, fines, claims, demands, expenses and costs (including legal fees) arising as a result of any breach of Data Protection Legislation or breach of this Schedule by TFBC.

Description of the Processing of Personal Data

1. Subject Matter

We are processing personal data by means of Electronic (Direct) Marketing using a combination of telephone, email and social media channels. Communication is largely unsolicited, so we need to comply with the Privacy & Electronic Communications Regulation 2003 (PECR).

2. Nature

The nature of the communication is to share family business related content to relevant personnel within the companies held on TFBC CRM database and to facilitate introductions, peer to peer learning and knowledge transfer. This can include identifying and sourcing individual's names and contact details for these family business organisations as well as re-contacting individuals who have previously given permission to be contacted.

3. Purpose

The objective of the communication is to initiate introductions and communication between the family businesses and the businesses that support the sector.
